Lawsuit Background

A settlement has been reached in a class action lawsuit against State Farm Mutual Automobile Insurance Company, State Farm Fire and Casualty Company, and State Farm General Insurance Company (collectively, "State Farm") relating to allegations that State Farm violated New Mexico law with its sale of the underinsured motorist ("UIM") component of Uninsured and Unknown Motorist Coverage ("U Coverage").

State Farm denies the allegations in the lawsuit and disputes it violated New Mexico law, but has agreed to settle the lawsuit, Schwartz v. State Farm Mutual Automobile Insurance Company, et al., Case No. 18-CV-00328-KWR-SCY, United States District Court for the District of New Mexico.

Who is included in the Settlement Class? All persons (and their heirs, executors, administrators, successors, and assigns) who, during the Class Period, were insured under New Mexico insurance policies by State Farm that included U Coverage. The Class Period is January 1, 2010 to December 31, 2021. Records show you may be a Settlement Class Member.

What does the Settlement Provide?

Submit your Settlement Claim online or by mail postmarked by July 2, 2026, for the following benefits:

Cash Payment:
You may be eligible for a Settlement Payment representing up to 21% of premiums you paid for minimum limits U Coverage purchased between 2010 and 2021 and 13% of premiums you paid for non-minimum limits U Coverage purchased between 2010 and 2021.

Your Settlement Payment may be subject to a pro rata (a legal term meaning equal share) reduction if the total amount of timely and valid Settlement Payments exceeds the aggregate cap of $20,925,000. In general, there will be one payment per household submitting a Settlement Claim Form.

Other Options

Opt-Out postmarked by May 18, 2026. Submit an opt-out if you do not want to be legally bound by the Settlement. The Court will exclude Settlement Class Members who request to opt-out.

Object by May 18, 2026. You may object to the Settlement if you do not opt-out. The Long Form Notice on the Settlement Website explains how to opt-out or object.

Do Nothing. You will get no benefits from the Settlement, and you will be bound by the Settlement, any judgments, and orders.

Final Approval Hearing on June 8, 2026. The Court will decide whether to approve the Settlement, Class Counsel's attorneys' fees and costs of up to $4,250,000, a $25,000 Service Award, and any objections. You or your lawyer may ask to appear at the hearing, but it is not required.
